

Our mission is to enhance the quality of life for people living with multiple sclerosis throughout Southern Indiana, Western Kentucky, and Southern Illinois.

For thousands of people in the Tri-State diagnosed with multiple sclerosis...there is hope! Since 2001, those in our community touched by this often devastating disease have had local services.

The Tri-State Multiple Sclerosis Association offers support, care, and hope... right here at home!

971C Kenmore Drive • Evansville, IN 47714
Phone: 812-423-5943 • Toll Free: 866-514-4312 • Fax: 812-423-5650
www.tristate.ms

Printing donated by Schutte Lithography, Inc.
Design donated by Fire & Rain.

The Tri-State Multiple Sclerosis Association cordially invites you to

An Evening of Excellence

Honoring

Gina Noreen Moore

YMCA Administrative Assistant

The Browne Sisters

Becky Unfried

MS patient

Recipients of the 2010 Spirit Awards

Friday, August 13, 2010
Casino Aztar Conference Center

6:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Cocktails and Dinner

8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Award Video Presentation - News 25

9:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Desserts

Silent and Live Auctions

Black and White Attire

RSVP by August 6

Gina Moore

2010 Spirit Award Recipient

The Tri-State Multiple Sclerosis Association is proud to present the 2010 Spirit Award to Gina Moore for her outstanding talent and community involvement.

Gina, administrative assistant at the YMCA, performs with her sister Joan as The Browne Sisters.

Her involvement in the community includes serving on the following Boards: Downtown Kiwanis, Lampion Center, Albion Fellows Bacon Center, Human Relations Commission and the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Committee. She served as the honorary chairperson for the 2002 Race for the Cure.

Gina has received the Leadership Evansville Arts Award, the Phenomenal Woman's Award from the University of Southern Indiana, the Black Women's Task Force Award, the Thomas M. Cheeks Award from the Lincoln High School Hall of Fame, the Artist of the Year Award from the Mayor's Arts Council, the Outstanding Service Award from the Lampion Center, and the Sue Woodson Service Award from the Human Relations Commission. She and her sister Joan have been honored as the "Best of Evansville" in 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006.

Gina has been featured in Evansville Living and eWoman Magazine. She has performed the National Anthem at a Pacers game, opened for the Neville Brothers with sister Joan, and sang backup for Michael Bolton and Josh Groban with "The Sounds of Grace" choir.

She has also shared her musical talents with organizations such as the YMCA, YWCA, Race for the Cure, American Red Cross, United Way, Muscular Dystrophy Association, Rehabilitation Center, Evansville ARC, Ark Crisis Nursery, St. Mary's Auxiliary, March of Dimes, Tri-State Multiple Sclerosis Association, Lampion Center, Habitat of Evansville, Lutherans for Habitat, Junior Achievement, American Diabetes Association, Arthritis Foundation, Good Samaritan Home, Salvation Army, United Caring Shelter, Evansville Rescue Mission, AIDS Resources Group, Wes Attebury Foundation, Mission of Grace, and many more.

Gina grew up and resides in Evansville. She loves spending time with her family and friends, especially her mother, "Momma," and great-nephew Elijah. She enjoys going to movies, shopping, and singing with "The Sounds of Grace" choir.

Rebecca "Becky" Unfried

2010 Spirit Award Recipient

The Tri-State Multiple Sclerosis Association is excited to confer the 2010 Spirit Award to Becky Unfried, an individual living with MS. She is being recognized for continued support and dedication to the Tri-State MS Association and other individuals coping with multiple sclerosis.

Becky and Mike, her husband of 40 years, reside in Evansville. Mike works for Working Distributors in Evansville. Together, Becky and Mike have two sons, Adam and Benjamin, and four grandchildren. Their son, Adam, and wife, Jan, reside in Evansville with their daughter, Elle. Ben and his wife, Christine, reside in Utah with their children, Greydon and twins Grace and Hope. Becky and Mike love spending time with their grandchildren. They just returned from visiting with Ben and his family in Utah.

Becky has a great love for dogs, especially boxers. Over the years she has raised four: Sam, Max, Mr. Bo Jangle, and Sox. Her pets have provided hours of companionship for Becky and her family.

Her career included St. Mary's Hospital, Atlas Van Lines, and Christ the King School. Becky's love of children guided her to caring for the children of five families. Becky found great joy in caring for these children.

For over thirty seven years, Becky and Mike have been proud members of St. Benedict Church.